Employment Contract

This contract for employment is entered by River City Commercial Cleaning as employer and _____(hereinafter "employee")

On this day: _____

Compensation:

____ A. The employee shall be paid for his/her services set forth per the attached exhibit.

____ B. The employee shall be paid for his/her services at the rate of $_____ per hour.

____ C. The employee shall be paid a salary of $_____per pay period (every two weeks).

Confidentiality:

The employee acknowledges that during the course of his/her employment with River City Commercial Cleaning he/she has and will acquire access to employer's trade secrets and confidential information including, but not limited to, all diaries, customer list, telephone list or documents containing customer names, address, pricing information, all customer information, all product information, supplier information, all financial information, all salaries and labor information. All materials used in the business and the like. Employee agrees during the term of this agreement and thereafter forever to keep confidential and not use directly or indirectly. Employee further agrees that at the termination of this agreement, to turn over all confidential information and trade secrets in employee's possession to River City Commercial Cleaning (employer).

Employer agrees that if the employee were to violate such breach of contract would ultimately cost the employer and further that breach of this confidentiality agreement might cause damages to River City (employer) which is not easily measured in dollar amounts. Thus, employee agrees that in the event of a breach of this confidentiality agreement that the employer is entitled to obtain an injunction to have a court order employee from publicizing or using any of the information obtained from the employer and that such injunction can be obtained even without a hearing.

Agreement not to compete

In consideration of his/her employment, the employee agrees that for a period of (2) years, anywhere that River City does business, not to compete with employer either directly or indirectly, including hiring any of the employer's employees, agents, or salespeople. Specifically but without limitation, the employee agrees not to do business nor to compete with directly or indirectly with the employer's customers and/or clientele, including but not limited to all of the employer's accounts. This agreement (the consideration for which is employment or continued employment) includes a promise by employee to not accept any duties of the nature performed by employer with any customer of the employer. Any existing account of the employee prior to employee's employment shall be specifically listed and excluded as Exhibit B attached hereto.

Employee agrees that if the employee were to violate this agreement concerning competitiveness that it would be difficult for the employer to know how much such breach of contract would ultimately cost the employer which are not easily measured in dollar amounts, Thus, employee agrees that in the event of a breach of this agreement not to compete that the employer is entitled to obtain an injunction to have a court order preventing employee from publicizing or using any of the information obtained from the employer, and that such injunction can be obtained even without a hearing. This agreement includes a promise by employee to not accept any position or employment which includes: cleaning or maintenance duties of the nature performed by employer with any customer of employer.

Employment at will

Employee acknowledges that he/she is an employee at will and is at times subject to termination with or without cause or notice. Specifically, the employer may terminate this Employment Contract at any time for any reason or for no reason and without notice to the employee. Once terminated by the employer, employer shall have no obligation whatsoever to the employee beyond the date of termination. Notwithstanding the above, the employee specifically acknowledges that the employer's reputation for honesty is critical to continued business success of the employer and thereafter. ANY ARREST OF THE EMPLOYEE FOR AN ACT OF DISHONESTY WHETHER DURING THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT, OR NOT, SHALL RESULT IN IMMEDIATE TERMINATION.

Entire Agreement

terminated, null and void. This Agreement cannot be modified except in writing signed by all parties and Michigan law shall govern.

Assignability

River City Commercial Cleaning

This agreement is binding not only on employee but anyone that he/she may hire as his/her employee or any other party who may act as employee's agent or representative. Employee cannot transfer the rights or duties of the Agreement to anyone else.

Attorney Fees

Employee agrees that if employer ever needs to enforce this Agreement whether suit is actually brought or not, employee shall pay the entire employer's actual fees and costs.

Survival

Should part of this agreement expire and/or be ruled invalid, the remaining part of this Agreement shall survive and remain in effect.

Form W-4 (2016)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2016 expires February 15, 2017. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2016. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEE

You must submit a Michigan withholding exemption certificate (form MI-W4) to your employer on or before the date that employment begins. If you fail or refuse to submit this certificate, your employer must withhold tax from your compensation without allowance for any exemptions. Your employer is required to notify the Michigan Department of Treasury if you have claimed 10 or more personal and dependent exemptions or claimed a status which exempts you from withholding.

You MUST file a new MI-W4 within 10 days if your residency status changes or if your exemptions decrease because: a) your spouse, for whom you have been claiming an exemption, is divorced or legally separated from you or claims his/her own exemption(s) on a separate certificate, or b) a dependent must be dropped for federal purposes.

Line 5: If you check "Yes," enter your date of hire (mo/day/year).

Line 6: Personal and dependent exemptions. The total number of exemptions you claim on the MI-W4 may not exceed the number of exemptions you are entitled to claim when you file your Michigan individual income tax return.

If you are married and you and your spouse are both employed, you both may not claim the same exemptions with each of your employers.

If you hold more than one job, you may not claim the same exemptions with more than one employer. If you claim the same exemptions at more than one job, your tax will be under withheld.

Line 7: You may designate additional withholding if you expect to owe more than the amount withheld.

Line 8: You may claim exemption from Michigan income tax withholding ONLY if you do not anticipate a Michigan income tax liability for the current year because all of the following exist: a) your employment is less than full time, b) your personal and dependent exemption allowance exceeds your annual compensation, c) you claimed exemption from federal withholding, d) you did not incur a Michigan income tax liability for the previous year. You may also claim exemption if your permanent home (domicile) is located in a Renaissance Zone. Members of flow-through entities may not claim exemption from nonresident flow-through withholding. For more information on Renaissance Zones call the Michigan Tele-Help System, 1-800-827-4000. Full-time students that do not satisfy all of the above requirements cannot claim exempt status.

Revised 7/2004

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING CERTIFICATE FOR GRAND RAPIDS INCOME TAX FORM GRW-4

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS—Check the box in the upper right hand corner to indicate your residency status and enter the requested data on lines 1 and 2.

LINE 3 INSTRUCTIONS—If you are a nonresident and work for this employer in two or more cities or communities, print the names of the two Michigan cities or communities where you perform the greatest percentage of your work. Circle the closest percent of total earnings for work done or services rendered in each city or community listed. The estimated percent of total earnings from this employer for work done or services performed within taxing cities (Line 3) is for withholding purposes only. In determining final tax liability this estimate is subject to substantiation and audit.

DEPENDENTS—To qualify as your dependent (line 6), a person (a) must receive more than one-half of his or her support from you for the year, and (b) must have less than $3,000 gross income during the year (except your child who is under 19 years of age or who is a full-time student under 24 years of age), and (c) must not be claimed as an exemption by such person's husband or wife, and (d) must be a citizen or resident of the United States or a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama or the Canal Zone (this does not apply to an alien child legally adopted by and living with a United States citizen abroad), and (e) must (1) have your home as his principal residence and be a member of your household for the entire year, or (2) be related to you as follows:

- Your son or daughter (including legally adopted children), grandchild, stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law.
- Your father, mother, grandparent, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law, or mother-in-law.
- Your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.
- Your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece (but only if related by blood).

INCREASE IN EXEMPTIONS—You should file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions increases.

DECREASE IN EXEMPTIONS—

- You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES for any of the following reasons:
  - Your spouse for whom you have been claiming exemption is divorced or legally separated, or claims their own exemption on a separate certificate.
  - The support of a dependent for whom you claimed exemption is taken over by someone else, so that you no longer expect to furnish more than half of their support for the year.
  - You find that a dependent for whom you claimed an exemption will receive $3,000 or more of income of their own during the year.
- CHILD TURNS 19—File a new certificate within 10 days of the start of the tax year in which your child, for whom you claimed exemption, turns 19 years of age or, if a full-time student, 24 years of age.
- DEATH OF SPOUSE OR DEPENDENT—You must file a new certificate by December 1 of the year in which the death of your spouse or dependent for whom you claimed exemption occurs. (Death of a spouse or a dependent does not affect your withholding until the next year.)
- CHANGE OF RESIDENCE—You must file a new certificate within 10 days after you change your residence from or to a taxing city.
- CHANGE IN EMPLOYMENT—You must file a new certificate by December 1 each year if your estimate of the percentage of work done or services rendered in Grand Rapids (Line 3) will change for the ensuing year.

EXTRA EXEMPTIONS—Additional exemptions allowed for federal income tax purposes and claimed on Schedule A of federal Form W-4 are not allowed for Grand Rapids income tax purposes.

NAME TAG & VEST

Everyone will be issued a name tag and vest which will be required to be worn at all times while on site of your buildings. Most of our customers have requested and some require this per our contact. Identification is important as well as recognition of our staff even from a distance from the front and back. The vest allows short or long sleeve shirts to be worn underneath.

Please keep the name tags and vest in good, clean condition. Your supervisor and/or management will be periodically verifying that both your name tag and vest are being worn. Proper care and continual use will gain points toward the building inspections. Consistent high point inspections will gain reward; however, not wearing your name tag and vest will result in a warning, and corrective action.

The professional image of our employees along with quality service is a necessity. If we all strive for continuous improvement, we will become more successful individuals and a better company.

Please sign below to acknowledge the receipt of the name tag and vest. If for any reason employment is terminated by either you or River City Commercial Cleaning the name tag and vest must be returned or $25 will be deducted from your final paycheck.
